Younes Conference Center
Kearney, Nebraska
416 West Talmadge Road • Phone 308-234-7300

Sponsored by US Foods

CONTENT

This program will provide a broad overview of key areas of the many roles for nurses in assisted living. The residents in assisted living in Nebraska can look to nurses for leadership, education, care management, and collaboration.

OBJECTIVES

At the completion of the program, the participant will be able to:

1. Describe the nurse’s responsibilities related to the Resident Service Agreement,
2. Discuss the philosophy and principles of assisted living,
3. Evaluate the nurse’s role in staffing and human resource responsibilities,
4. Illustrate transition issues and the nurse’s role in promoting a broader understanding of common issues and what collaboration can be done to provide the best outcomes,
5. Explain special units and the critical needs of effectively caring for dementia or other special populations in assisted living and the nurse’s role,
6. Describe the role of the nurse related to resident’s rights and the appropriate handling of grievances in assisted living,
7. Identify the nurse’s management of effective inservice and education needs related to staff, and
8. Describe the roles and responsibilities of the nurse in assisted living and an overview of assisted living regulations.
